

The diagram illustrates the rotation of a line segment AB in the horizontal plane. The initial position is a horizontal line segment AB of length 60, with A at the origin and B at (60, 0). The final position is a line segment A'B' of length 42, rotated 45 degrees counter-clockwise from the horizontal. The diagram includes projection lines and dimension lines to show the construction of the new position A'B'.